

CONVERSATIONS ABOUT GOVERNMENT IN IOWA

Fiscal One-on-Ones Rebranded. The Legislative Services Agency has renamed one of its publications. Formerly known as Fiscal One-on-Ones, the agency's audio interviews are now listed on the General Assembly's website as Conversations About Government in Iowa.

The new title reflects changes in the nature of the interviews since the agency began them in 2011. The interviews are usually 20 minutes or less and involve an LSA staff member interviewing an individual or group of people who have been involved in State or local government in Iowa.

New Interviews. In the last half of 2016, the LSA published four new interviews with:

- Calvin McKelvogue, State Accounting Enterprise Chief Operating Officer with the Department of Administrative Services, regarding his work in state accounting and the changes implemented over the years to maintain Iowa's solid financial outlook for years to come.
- Paul Tauke, State Forester with the Iowa Department of Natural Resources, regarding operations at the State Forest Nursery in Ames.
- Judy Bradshaw, current Director of the Iowa Law Enforcement Academy and former Des Moines Chief of Police, regarding her career in law enforcement.
- John Quinn, current Waukee Chief of Police and former Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) Special Agent and DCI Division Director with the Iowa Department of Public Safety, regarding his career in State law enforcement prior to his retirement, his current role as the Chief of Police in Waukee, and changes in law enforcement over the years.
